

From classic colonial to sleek euro-modern, Tague Lumber has the stock, semi-custom, and custom cabinet options to make your dream kitchen and baths become realities. In addition, Tague's Design Showrooms in Malvern & Doylestown have beautiful displays of the latest cabinetry design trends as well as traditional favorites.

Our design professionals can help you assess options/budget and decide which types of cabinets and countertops will function best for you. We can work with you to plan your entire kitchen or work in tandem with your architect or interior designer. Our goal is to give you absolutely top quality products, service, and value.
